

Taking the Conversation Further

Below are some great ways to take your conversation from “hey, how are things” to getting you some great info to start building a plan for your (new) neighbors.

_____ I have a church that I feel connected to

_____ I want to find a church community

_____ I have local friends (Think emotionally and spiritually, not just financially)

- List their names:

_____ I have local family (Think emotionally and spiritually, not just financially)

- Who are they:

_____ I have family who live away from me but are supportive (Think emotionally and spiritually, not just financially)

_____ I have a job/ income

_____ My job/ income is stable

_____ My income covers all my expenses

_____ I have reliable transportation

Notes:
